

I am well acquainted with Mr Waugh and am entirely satisfied that he intended no violation of the law in the case in which he has been fined.
He is a very worthy & respectable citizen & I hereby vote in the above petition that his fine be remitted.

Excution Department

24. March 1838

The fine against Arthur C. Waugh of Mobile for failing to file his bond as Notary Public within the time prescribed by law, imposed by the City Court is remitted, with the exception of twenty dollars, for the reasons set forth in the foregoing petition of the party who took the case, and the further reason assigned by the collector in a letter filed herewith & the representations made by other good citizens.
