Rev. B. Pope

Dear Sir

In looking over the copy of the letter I addressed to the Govt. in behalf of Russell I find a sentence which I think needs modification. I allude to the sentence towards the close of my letter which begins "Indeed I think I may safely

I wish it to read thus" Indeed I think I may that to his bad character & these reports, is in a great degree to be attributed that part of the verdict which affixed the penalty of death"

As the sentence now stands, ^{some injustice} might seem to be done to the jury who tried the case.

If you have sent my letter to the Govt., you will please send this also as I am anxious that nothing should be stated by me that would even seem to do the least injustice to any body.

Yours truly

Wm. W. W. W.
