

Camden March 15, 1859.

To His Excellency.

P. A. B. Moore.

Having been Solicitor for the 2nd Judicial Circuit in 1847, I prosecuted to conviction Reuben Pearson, who was charged with Murder, in the Circuit Court of Dallas County. Guiding from the report of the Inspectors of the Penitentiary, that since his imprisonment, the conduct of the said Pearson has been unexceptionable, and considering his advanced age, he being nearly seventy. I recommend to your Excellency, the remission, of the remainder, of his term of imprisonment, believing that it would not be inconsistent, with the public good, to do so.

your obt. servt

F. H. Beck